Promoting Peace and Cultural Understanding through Linguistic Diversity

Fostering peace and intercultural understanding through language and tolerance stands at the core of UTM's mission. By promoting linguistic diversity and inclusive education, the university advances the principles of SDG 16, nurturing globally minded leaders who embody empathy, dialogue, and mutual respect.

Partnerships for Sustainable Tourism Development

Marking its first year, the ALECSO Chair for International Commercial Arbitration (CAACI), under the leadership of Professor Najet Brahmi Zouaoui, held a celebratory event on Wednesday, April 26, 2023, at the El Mouradi Hotel in Gammarth. The ceremony gathered prominent national and international guests, alongside a large audience of students from Tunisian and international law faculties.

Opening Session

The opening session of the event featured remarks from several distinguished figures, including:

- Professor Mustapha Beltaief, Dean of the Faculty of Law and Political Science of Tunis
- Professor Moez Chafra, President of the UTM
- Mr. Malek Kochlef, Director General of International Cooperation at the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research, representing Minister Moncef Boukthir
- Mr. Moncef Kchaou, First President of the Court of Cassation
- Ms. Uta Staschewski, Regional Delegate of the Hans Seidel Foundation for the Maghreb region

The session was moderated by Professor Najet Brahmi.
